On the basis of information stated in Marian R. Fletcher Swindlehurst's letter of June 1977 to SRP (Letter #152 Collection SRP) and on the basis of information stated in ELL (see p. 63), we therefore know that:

--two of the children of Michael Grinnell (b. 3-20-1752, d. 2-12-1858) and Susannah Balcom (b. 1760, d. 8-1-1825) married two of the children of Elijah Marshall (a soldier in the Revolutionary War), that is to say:

he died 2/13/58

Rufus Grinnell (b. 5-28-1778, d. 7-16-1865; (see #42 above) #42) married Anna Marshall (d. 1-12-1837, AE 59 yrs; (see #43 above)

Elizabeth Grinnell (b. 3-5-1782 in Salisbury, CT., d. 6-2-1862) married Eli Marshall (b. 7-16-1782, in Litchfield, CT., d. 8-11-1845; farmer, fought in War of 1812) on Dec. 1, 1802; 8 children

--Beulah Grinnell (b. 12-1-1788, d. 5-28-1861), one of the children of Michael Grinnell and Susannah Balcom, married Horace Gilbert Squire (b. 12-13-1788 in Gill, MA., d. 3-12-1857 in Clinton, PA) on October 16, 1811. Horace G. Squire is the paternal grandfather of Mary Emma Squire, the maternal grandmother of Helen Loomis Russell Powell.

In addition--

From ELL (see p. 63; note that ELL consulted Dr. W. W. Fletcher's notes) we know that Michael Grinnell (b. 3-20-1752, d. 2-12-1858) and Susannah Balcom (b. 1760, d. 8-1-1825) had six children:

1. Rufus (b. 5-2-1778, d. 7-16-1865)
2. Sarah
3. Elizabeth (b. 3-5-1782, d. 6-2-1862)
4. Latitia
5. Beulah (12-1-1788--5-28-1861)
6. Michael (b. 5-28-1790)

[Rufus, Sarah, Elizabeth and Latitia were born in Salisbury, Litchfield Co., CT before 1785; in 1785 the family moved to Bolston, NY. In 1787 they returned to CT. and settled in Winchester, Litchfield Co., where Beulah and Michael were born]

What is known of Sarah Grinnell, Latitia Grinnell and Michael Grinnell, Jr.?
